I'm scheduled to be in Pittsfield on October 7th, but I've contacted the ADA involved in that case to let him know what is going on with your case. He thinks that the case will work out short of trial, but even if it doesn't, he says he will do everything he can to get me on the stand in the morning so I can get back to Springfield by 2-2:30ish. He also said he is going to make a couple calls this afternoon or tomorrow and will get back to me when he has a more definitive understanding of what is going to happen.

The case of [REDACTED] will be impanelled on Wed. October 6, 2010. This is a definite trial. You will be needed on Thursday in the afternoon. Is this a problem? John Bryson.
